Warsaw, Dec. 26. N. S.

AN Expreſs from the Ambaſſador of Poland at the Congreſs at Carlowitz paſſed through this City yeſterday, going to meet the King in Lithuania; It's ſaid, he brings the Treaty for a Truce of 25 years between this Crown and the Ottoman Port. Our Letters from Lithuania ſay, that the King had received an Account from the Senators and other Perſons of Quality who were met at Grodno to endeavour a Reconciliation of the Houſes of Sapieha and Oginsky, that they had renewed the Negociations to that effect with good Appearances of Succeſs, inſomuch that they doubted not but if they were countenanced by the King's Preſence, they might bring Matters to a happy Concluſion; Whereupon the King parted from Brezza on the 18th of this Month, accompanied by Prince Radzivil Chancellor of Lithuania, the Treaſurer, the Caſtellan Welinski, and divers other Perſons of Note, and repaired to Grodno.

Vienna, Jan. 3. According to our laſt Advices from Carlowitz, the Negociation between the Venetians and the Turks continued much in the ſame State, the Matter concerning the Fortreſſes in the Morea, which the Turks demand to have reſtored, or at leaſt demoliſhed, not being yet adjuſted. The Turks likewiſe demand of the Muſcovites, the Reſtitution of ſome Forts on the Boreſthenes; but the Muſcovite Ambaſſador has hitherto inſiſted on the Article agreed upon in the Preliminaries, That each Party ſhould keep what they have at preſent; However he has ſent an Expreſs to the Czar his Maſter, to receive his further Orders. The Count of Windiſgratz is gone from hence for Modena, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary, to Compliment the Princeſs of Hanover, and to preſent to her the King of the Romans Picture, and Jewels to a conſiderable Value; The Ceremony of the Marriage is appointed to be at Modena on the 5th Inſtant, for which purpoſe the King of the Romans has ſent a Procuration to the Duke of Modena, to perform the ſame in his Name; And on the 6th the new Queen will begin her Journey, intending to be on the 15th at fartheſt at Roveredo, a Town ſituate on the Borders of the Country of Tyrol, about 4 miles beyond Trent, where ſhe is to be received by Prince Lobkowitz her High-Steward, the Count de Paar Maſter of the Horſe, and her other Attendants, and is expected here by the 15th of February. The Emperor has appointed Count Waltz to aſſiſt on his part at the Election of a Succeſſor to the late Biſhop of Wurtzburg, and he is preparing to go thither in a few days; It's ſaid, the Elector of Mentz ſtands faireſt to be choſen. The Count of Walkenſtain, Lieutenant of the Country of Tyrol, is made Chamberlain of the Houſhold to the Emperor, and was this week ſworn into that Office. The Count Trautſon Chamberlain to the King of the Romans, and Count Waldſtein Son to the Count de Harrach, have received from the King of Spain the Order of the Golden Fleece. The Regiment of Foot of Spielberg, and the Troops of the Circle of Bavaria, are paſſed by this Place in their march to their Winter Quarters. Our Advices from Hungary ſay, the Baſſa of Boſnia is fallen under the Grand Signior's Diſpleaſure, and is ſent for to Andrinople, and the Teſthedar Baſſa, who reſided at Traunick, has ſucceeded him; Upon which, it being feared that this new Governor, according to the Cuſtom of the Turks, will endeavour to enrich himſelf by making Excurſions into the German Territories, the Troops on the Borders of Croatia have been reinforced, and ordered to be upon their Guard.

Francfort, Jan. 12. The Conferences for adjuſting the Pretenſions of the Dutcheſs of Orleans on the Palatinate are continued; Laſt week the Heer Zoolman, Commiſſioner from the Elector Palatine, delivered to the French Commiſſioner a Paper, containing a Project of ſeveral Articles relating to this Matter, which he tranſmitted to the Court of France. Our Letters from Ratisbonne ſay, the Prince of Lobkowitz came thither laſt week from Vienna, and after having ſtayed at that Place a few days to ſettle his Affairs, took Leave of the Imperial Diet, where he has reſided ſeveral years with the Character of the Emperor's Firſt Commiſſioner, and continued his Journey to the Country of Tirol, on the Borders of which he is to receive the new Queen of the Romans, and to conduct her to the Imperial Court.

Bruſſels, Jan. 14. All the Officers of the Forces in the Spaniſh Netherlands are commanded to repair to their ſeveral Commands, in order to the putting in Execution the Regulations concerning the Forces to be kept on foot in time of Peace. The Duke of Wirtemberg is lately arrived here from the Hague, and was yeſterday with the Elector of Bavaria; He intends to leave this Place in a day or two, and to take a Review of the Dutch Frontier Towns and Garriſons in Flanders.

Hague, Jan. 16. Baron Canitz, Envoy from the Elector of Brandenbourg, was yeſterday in Conference with the Deputies of the States-General appointed to Treat with him concerning the Payment of the Arrears of Subſidies due by this State to his Electoral Highneſs. The Baron of Lillienroot, Ambaſſador from Sweden, has preſented his Credential Letters, and will have his Publick Audience in a few days. The States of Holland and Weſt-friſeland will Adjourn to morrow for a week. The Council of State has appointed Commiſſioners to let the Publick Farms in the ſeveral Places under their Juriſdiction. Monſieur Stucker Envoy from the King of Denmark, and the Count Dona Envoy from the Elector of Brandenbourg to His Majeſty of Great-Britain, intend to go for England with the firſt fair Wind. Monſieur Dyckvelt is on his Departure for the Court of Spain, whither he goes as Ambaſſador from the States, He is to make ſome ſtay by the way at Bruſſils.

Hague, Jan. 20. Yeſterday the Count de Goes, Envoy from the Emperor, had his Publick Audience of the States-General, to whom he notified the intended Marriage of the King of the Romans with the Princeſs of Hanover. The Sieur Gerſdorf, Reſident from the King of Poland, has received Advice from Grodno of the 31ſt of December, of the Reconciliation of the two Factions of Sapieha and Oginsky, which was made juſt as they were up on the point to engage; Moſt of the Gentry had joined with Oginsky, and together made a Body of 30000 Men, which very much exceeded in number the Forces of General Sapieha. Both Parties were already drawn out in order of Battel when Major-General Fleming interpoſed, and having with him 3 Regiments of the King's Saxon Forces, he declared he had Orders to oppoſe thoſe who ſhould make the firſt Attack, and by his Aſſiſtance, as likewiſe of the Biſhop of Wilna, an Agreement was concluded upon the ſpot much to the Advantage of Oginsky, and withal to the Satisfaction of Prince Sapieha, who by this means was freed from very hazardous Circumſtances. After which, both Parties ſeparated, and Prince Sapieha and the Sieur Oginsky went to Grodno to pay their Reſpects to the King, and deſire his confirmation of the ſaid Agreement, which was preſently granted. This Matter being thus happily adjuſted, to the great Joy of the whole Dutchy of Lithuania, the King, to expreſs his Satisfaction with Major General Fleming's Management, made him a Lieutenant-General. And the Senate of Lithuania, as an Acknowledgment of the Service he had done to that Province, have voted him a Denizen, with all the Rights and Privileges annexed thereunto.

Paris, Jan. 17. N. S. On the 13th Inſtant the Counteſs of Jerſey had Audience of the Dutcheſs of Burgundy, being conducted by the Baron of Breteuil Introductor of Ambaſſadors who came in the morning with the Dutcheſs's Coach to carry her to Verſailles. The Dutcheſs de Lude, Lady of Honour, received her in the Antichamber, and introduced her to the Dutcheſs of Burgundy, with the uſual Honours. The Dutcheſs de Lude reconducted her to the Antichamber, and afterwards entertained her at Dinner very ſplendidly; And in the afternoon my Lady Jerſey had in like manner Audience of the Dutcheſs of Orleans.
